

Tyler Gatteau D.C.

EMPLOYMENT OBJECTIVE

To practice bringing health, education, and wellbeing to patients, to bridge the concept of health and the ability of sustainable wellness, to create relationships with people that encompass healing through mind, body, and movement.

EDUCATION

Doctorate of Chiropractic, December 2007

Life Chiropractic College West, Hayward, CA

Magna Cum Laude (3.7 GPA)

Bachelors Degree, Psychology, May 1998

Fort Lewis College, Durango, CO

Cum Laude (3.4 GPA)

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Extensive practical hands-on experience: working with people of all ages in many different areas of health and holism
- Motivated and enthusiastic: about developing good relations with clients of all ages
- People skills: including an easy manner that invites trust and communication
- Organizational Skills: in office management, business development, an attention to detail, and a willingness to learn
- Active in the community: through volunteer work and various networks

RELAVANT EXPERIENCE

-SUPERVISION AND COORDINATION-

Life Chiropractic College West, Hayward, CA

Clinical Outreach Director
2008- April 2008

January

Directed and managed all outreach programs for the college, responsible for all business relations outside of the college, responsible for bringing in and introducing new patients to the clinic for all clinic interns.

Council President and Vice President - September 2004-December 2007

Bridged communication between administration and the student body, helped to create new programs for students, and refined existing regulations and policies.

Strategic Planning Commission - December 2004-December 2007

Acted as a student liaison between College Board and the student body to maintain the excellence of the institution.

Honors Intern - July 2008-December 2008

Aided clinic doctors in supervising other clinic interns; awarded Clinical Excellence Award after acting as Honors Intern and for high levels of patient satisfaction in the clinic.

Youth for Change Group Homes, Paradise, CA - June 2000-June 2001

Facility Manager

Directed six “at risk” teenagers in every day life, including meals, school, chores, and outdoor activities to get them ready to start life outside of the group home setting. Also part of group therapy and aided with parent/child interactions.

-DEVELOPMENT AND GROWTH-

The Human Health Place, Fort Collins, CO - January 2009-Present

Owner/Chiropractor

I am currently taking new patients for my clinic which includes a holistic approach to wellness. I include chiropractic adjustments, massage, short muscle stretching, stabilization muscle strengthening, and nutritional advice.

Castle Keepers, Bay Area, CA

Owner/ - July 2001-Present

Successfully opened and ran a house and pet sitting business throughout Colorado and California.

Independent Movement and Art Therapy, Durango, CO and Paradise, CA - 1997-1998, 2000-2001

Participated in exploring movement and art therapy with individuals diagnosed with schizophrenia during one full year of college and with troubled teens.